

Wikipedia Article Microsite Content Outline: Studio Ghibli

Studio Ghibli is an iconic name in the animation industry, with several well-received films that many consider a classic and nostalgic part of their childhood. This microsite can share information and fun facts of the studio behind these movies.

1. Title/Intro Page

- a. This page can introduce what Studio Ghibli is very briefly, while giving the audience/viewer some easily digestible key images/figures that represent the studio
- b. In addition, this would be a good place to put a run down of the studio's stylistic choices and music, as these are also identifying characteristics of Ghibli films

2. History

- a. This page can run down the rise of Studio Ghibli by recounting its history. The article shows three subsections that could be integrated into the page design

3. Distribution + Sharing

- a. This page can run down Studio Ghibli's stance and management of distribution of its films

4. List of Works/Films

- a. This page can list the history of films that were produced under Studio Ghibli in their official filmography

5. Sources Page

- a. This page could be good for reference links and such;
  - i. Links to notable animators (potentially)
  - ii. Links to relevant "see also" (such as Ghibli park and Ghibli museum)
  - iii. Link to the Wikipedia page + other sources